PERRY GIVEN FIVE YEARS IN BANK CASE

Enters Plea of Guilty to Indictment

OTHER INDICTMENTS

Grand Jury Discharged For Term After Disposing of Perry Case-Petit Jury Hears Assault Case and Acquits Accused.

J. Lawrence Perry, former vice president of the Alexandria National Bank, at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon entered a plea of guilty to an indictment charging him with abstracting, misapplying and embezzling funds of the Alexandria National Bank, and he was sentenced by Judge D. Lawrence Groner to serve a term of five years in the penitentiary at Atlanta,

The grand jury that indicted Perry only a few minutes before he entered his plea returned a true bill to the indictment against him which contained a total of twenty-two counts.

A few minutes afterward Perry ac-companied by his attorney Albert V. Bryan appeared in court and Perry pleaded guilty to the indictment and thereupon was sentenced. Perry at once was taken in custody by United States Marshal Clarence Smithers States Marshal Clarence Smithers and will be shortly sent to the peni-tentary to begin his term.

Before sentence was pronounced by the court District Attorney Paul Kerr was asked by the court what his recommendation in the case was and he suggested that the accused be given five to six years in the peniten-
